

Charles J. Moon

July 2, 1918 - April 5, 2015

Charles J. Moon, 96, A Native of Walton Co, and longtime resident of Rockdale Co, Conyers, GA was born on July 20, 1918 and passed away on April 5, 2015. Mr. Moon was a self-employed farmer & land grader all his life until recent declining health prevented him from doing what he loved-working. He loved to plant a garden, bail hay or move the land while atop one of his many John Deere, or Massey Ferguson Tractors or Bulldozers or making cutting grass. He love the land, nature, animals & being outside watching things grow and admiring god's beauty & glory. He also loved sitting in his recliner staring out the window, his latest past time was putting puzzles together with his family and friends. He was a well loved and respected member of the community of which his place could never be filled and he will be sorely missed. He was preceded in death by his father Albert Moon, Mother, Rose Stephenson Moon, Brother, Lynwood & Opal Moon, Brother Broadus & Louise Moon, Sister Mildred Moon & Lauren Spratlin. He is survived by his loving wife of 74 years+ Catherine Bryant Moon, Son Henry (Joey) & Patricia Atha Moon, Daughter Mary Moon Williamson, Grandson Christopher Humphries and Sandy Kitchens, Granddaughter Wanda Williamson and Grandson Joey Alexander Moon, Brother in Law Clyde & Ann Farmer Bryant and his Sister in Law Belle Bryant Scaffé & Jimmy Scaffé, Special friends Gary & Lynda Swann Kimm, Ron & Darlene Booker & Reid, Mark & Kimberly Johnson and George and Stacy Joseph & Family, Numerous Nieces & Nephews and a host of family and friends. Everybody loved him & he loved everybody loved him. He loved his god, his family and friends.

“ I grew up hearing my dad (Van Greene) say the name "Charles Moon" with such respect that I knew he was someone special long before I met him. My dad would never have been able to keep his farm without Mr. Moon's help. I looked forward to his coming to scrape the driveway, bush hog the pasture or whatever else because he always took the time to chat. How blessed to have known such a fine man.
