What a beautiful tribute in pictures and song! Chuck's smile was genuine and graciously shared - except on the field of competition (as he consistently got hit after hit in softball games or years later, on the basketball pickup games where this man would go down toward the basket without fear or intimidation. I had opportunity to play with and against him, to talk to him after the death of his brother decades ago or about faith, family and fellowship, what a gentle man; what a loss. God bless his family now and over the years!

“ So sorry to hear of Chuck's passing. He was a wonderful person, friend and a vital member of the church. He did much to support and help to grow the church and will always be fondly remembered for his many contributions.

We had many wonderful memories of the old church softball team and "Daddy Rabbit" was an important team member. I can still see him rounding the bases with a big smile on his face. May he rest in peace and his family find comfort in the many memories and many relationships he developed.

“ I just happened to see the obit of Chuck in the AJC, and was deeply shocked. He and his brothers grew up in THS and FBC which was such a huge part of our lives back then. Gayle was a bit younger, but we were all very good friends with the brothers. Robert was in my class of 1962 - please pass this news on to him that our thoughts and prayers are with the family. I posted this sad news on the Toccoa High School Alumni Facebook post for others to know, esp. his Class of 1960. Deepest sympathy to all of you in the family.

“ Chuck Taylor was one of the kindest, Southern Gentleman that I've known. Always quick with a smile and a kind word. He hired me while he was working with Bank Building Corp. and I had the privlage of working with him for several years. I learned a lot from him and have enjoyed a long and prosperous career as a result. Thank you Chuck, you will be dearly missed. Carolyn and I give our sincerest condolences to his family. Absent from the body, present with the Lord. May God bless!

“ I attended no less than a dozen retreats with Chuck at the Ignatius House in Atlanta when we'd be sharing a weekend to strengthen our mutual experience, strength, and hope. Chuck would often be chosen to lead one of the sessions. He always seemed to approach the subject matter in a very humble way, almost as if he wasn't qualified to have an opinion on the matter. Often he'd interject some sort of self-deprecating humor at an unexpected time. Due to his faith, however, his opinions would appear heartfelt and genuine and a real pleasure to hear. By the time he'd be done, one wished that he hadn't yet finished. I'm going to miss that delightful sense of humor. I bet you that heaven is now a slight bit more light-hearted since he became part of the big meeting in the sky.

“ Many fond memories growing up with our cousin Charles. He was our first best friend along with his brothers Robert and Richard and sister Gayle. We always had fun times together playing at Mama and Papa Coffey's house.

Our hearts are sad, but we know that he is now without pain and with his heavenly Father.
