“ We celebrated your life on this beautiful sunshine day, Charlie. At the burial service the bugler sounded TAPS during the quite, peaceful flag ceremony with birds singing in the background. "Day is done, gone the sun.....safely rest, God is nigh," our dear Friend.

“ Charlie,

We miss you already, dear friend! Please know that we will never forget you and will remember the wonderful friend you have always been. We have nothing but fond memories of your good humor, open heart and mind, generosity and community leadership.

We thank you for serving our great country so honorably and by being a very dear friend and neighbor. In spite of the enormous loss we must all suffer in your passing, we are grateful and comforted to see you in peaceful rest and pain free.

We will look out for Ginny and help her through this terrible time and wish her peace as she recovers from the sorrow of losing you, her trusted companion and loving husband. God bless you, Charlie and may you be comforted in knowing your life made a positive difference to this world and YOU are loved forever in our hearts.

Goodbye Friend and we will think with a smile about the vision of you and your Harley, grey curls swirling behind, as you rode in high style on your bike AND in your life!###imported-begin###Jeff Grill and Carolyn Woodward###imported-end###

“ Kenneth, Katherine, and the rest of the family, I am really saddened to hear about Mr Hall. As the pharmacist for his mom and dad, JT and Bonnie, I got to know him on his almost every other weekend trips to pick up his parents meds. I was so glad when I got to see him again a couple of months ago on a trip back into our store. He was one of the sweetest men I have known. We often chatted about his Harley's. Guess he is in Harley Heaven now.###imported-begin###Tammy Carloss###imported-end###

“ Katherine, Kenneth and family,
My heart is broken for you. I'm so sorry about Charles. I am thankful, though, that God was merciful and didn't allow a long suffering. I'm sorry I can't be at the visitation and funeral. I going out of town today. I'm praying that God will be your source of comfort and strength during this sad time. God Bless you all. Please call if I can help with anything.

“ Dear Ginny and Family,
My deepest condolences, love and prayers during this devastating loss. My Tony left me January 29, 2013 under similar circumstances. Was diagnosed with Liver Cancer and passed only 68 days later. Charlie was in our wedding. He and Tony had lots of fun during their teenage years and stayed friends through their businesses. Charlie is an amazing, sweet gentle man and will be missed very deeply by all who loved and knew his bright smile and quick wit.
