“ I just heard about Dennis death...I am so very sorry to hear that he died at such a young age. Dennis was in my wedding to his best friend Jody Ivester. He was Jody's best man. The reason I found out about Dennis death was because Jody died on April 27th, 2009 and we were trying to reach Dennis to tell him about Jody.

I remember the day that Dennis told everyone that he was going to be father for the first time...He was soooooo excited. I remember when Matt was born...

My condolences go out to his family I know this special man, Father, husband, son and brother will be missed.

“ Hey Dad-

I wish I could say that to you. So many things have happened this year and i realized that my first instinct was to pick up the phone and call you. I miss being able to talk to you. Chad and Jordan went yesterday to spread your ashes. i couldn't do it. i am having a very hard time letting go. I know you are in a better place, but I think it is easier for me to just block everything out. I love you so much. everyone so far says that they have dreams about you, but I haven't had one. I want to see your face again and hold your hand. I can't believe it has been a year already. God I wish you were here. I spent the day riding around running errands to keep myself busy, but I can't keep my mind off you. In the long run I ended up looking at pictures and grasping for straws. Anyway this was the only way for me to feel like I could talk to you. I love you so much and not a day goes by that you are not with me. I just wish I could pick up the phone and call. I know you never thought I listened to you, but your advice got me so far. Thank you so much Daddy for everything you did for me. I love you from the bottom of my heart. You have part of me with you and one day I will see you again.

Love always,

“ *Hey Baby,
Today is the anniversary of you're passing. I woke up this morning at that same time reliving the moment. I called Jordan and he told me that Chad and he had gone to Helen, Ga. yesterday. They visited Boggs Creek and spread your ashes where we used to go fishing. I miss you, love you and can't wait 'till the day comes to be with you again.
Love always and forever,
You're Twister Lyn###imported-begin##Jacquelyn Jaudonna Dillard###imported-end##*

“ Hey Baby, It's gut wrenching to be staring at this blank page trying to write a note to you. You were NEVER a blank page, so full of passion, always a postive word to say when I had none and some funny little jig to make me smlie agian. Without you here to share them with me the days seem blank like this page. I miss you every moment, Daddy. You're breif visits with me now will have to do until God deems it time to rejoin you in heaven. Untill that glorious day arrives I have all the wonderful memories of our times together here with you. Of course your family the kids too. They are the best part, I see so much of you in each one ,it's the closest thing to having you here next to me. I'm keeping to the promises I made to you (promises about To-Do's after you were gone). My Dad said he saw you dancing and laughing in heaven, he seemed to think you were building a pool too. I am happy to know you are with God, HAPPY, out of constant mental torment and FINALLY you have the peace of mind and spirit you always dreamed of receiving one day. If I know you, you're sitting staring over the ocean right now. You are now the butterfly over my heart to keep you close always. Oh to feel your touch and hear you call me one last time, I can only hold that memory now. I miss you my love.

Love Forever and Always,
Your "Twister" Lyn##imported-begin##Jacquelyn Jaudonn

“ Daddy-

I never would have thought that I would have been doing this today. I am sure you knew how much I loved you. Your funeral was beautiful and I am sure that you would have been proud of all of your kids. We all have tried to be strong for you, but let me tell you it is not easy. I tried to go to sleep last night and although Chad says that I have your heart I feel like part of my heart is missing. I know you are watching me from hevan and you wouldn't want me to greive, but I don't think I will ever be the same. I miss you so much already and I just pray to God that this pain will go away. I love you Dad and I know I am selfish to want you back in this world that caused you so much anguish, but I cant help but want you to hold me tight and tell me how much you love me. No matter on earth or in hevean I will always be your little girl. I love you Dad. I will see you again someday. tell Jesus thank you for all of his blessings and thank you for the time I did get to spend with such a wonderful dad.

I will always love you

“ *Mr & Mrs Dillard, Buddy, and family.
I'm sorry to here of your loss. My brother also passed this past year, Ken Thompson. We also lived on Kensington Rd. We all knew each other, years ago. Ken and Dennis were good friends in high school.
All my memories of your Son & Brother were good ones. Maybe he and Ken are building us all a big house and beautiful pool right now.##imported-begin##Steve Thompson##imported-end##*

“ *Dennis, it just don't seem right that your name appeared in the paper today. I'm shocked to hear of your passing. You were a long time friend of ours and will always be remembered for who you were.
Our Love goes out to your family and kids, especially Helen and Buddy.
