“ Sue and family, all my love and prayers to everyone. I still laugh about the time David Still sent that girl home to change her clothes because her shorts were too short?? I think her name was Elaine?? Also, do you remember when you were working on the Quality Foods ad and they had self-rising chicken breast?? We had some fun times at the paper. All the composing is automated now. I saw our old wax machine at our Rockdale plant I guess I was the only one that knew what it was used for. I still have my ruler or pica stick as David called it.Linda Campbell works for David Mosburger in the Downtown Lawrenceville remodeling project. She lost her husband three years ago. Barbara Cox e-mailed me about three weeks ago about advertising Marvin's daughter's jazzercise classes. I never knew he had a previous whatever. Call me sometimes 770-963-9205, ext 1159 or at home 770-963-0610. Love to you all. Anita Conrad##imported-begin##anita conrad##imported-end##

“ Jim and family,

We were so sorry to hear of Charlie's death. I hope as you grieve his loss, you will know in your heart what a wonderful brother you have been to him, and how much he loved and appreciated you.

The greatest gift we can give someone is the gift of our time, and I know you spent a lot of time traveling with hime and Sue and watching him enjoy life.

We'll keep you in our thoughts and prayers in the days to come.

Love,
