“ I am so sorry for your loss. The loss of a loved one is so heart breaking. If we are in good health we want to live and enjoy life with our loved ones. When they die we yearn to see them again. The Bible teaches that, that is possible. Most people who have died will be resurrected. Jesus promised that "those in the memorial tombs will...come out."(John 5:28,29) In harmony with God's original purpose, those resurrected humans will have the opportunity to live on a paradise earth. (Luke 23:43) This promised future includes perfect health and everlasting life for obedient humans. The Bible says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Psalms 37:29. See also Job 14:14,15: Luke 7:11-17: and Acts 24:15. I hope that this entry will give you and your family some comfort and assured hope. For further comfort and assured hope, please contact the local Kingdom hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.##imported-begin##FH##imported-end##

“ I knew Ed for a short time he and Barbara was so nice to Shane the kids and my self and treated us like family when we lived in Lawrenceville, Georgia... He will be missed I know for sure. We moved to Birmingham for my work and it was hard to go see them but we would send a card and receive a card from time to time and talk on the phone but not like we should and you only see that after the fact. Ed was so full of life when we were around him and to learn that he was sick to the point of not getting around very well I'm sure was hard on Ed and Barbara. But knowing Ed he did make the best of it. we did get to come up for the Services. The Visitation and Funeral service could not have been any better. It was good seeing Barbara and hard to see Ed go away to be with the Lord but as the preacher said he was no longer in pain and is waiting for us all to meet again.

Good by Ed. You left an impression on my life.
