Always my mother , forever my best friend . YOU Were the strongest woman I have ever met . I'm proud to say that you was my mother . You have inspired so many people just by your strength alone . You have taught me so many things in life and for that I am thankful. I hope to be half as good as the mother you was to me for my girls as the grow into young women . The most important thing I learned from watching you is to dont ever give up . You have won so many battles that has formed against you . But mother You didnt lose this fight , you simple went to be with your family whose passed before you . Because they were missing you just as much we miss you right now . I'm so glad your no longer in pain my sweet mother I love you with all my heart . And I know the heavens are having a celebration now , because that have took the sweetest angel home .

Charlotte, there's so many memories. Family gatherings, sister parties, church services. I have thought all week about what I could say. There's not one word that I know of that truly expresses what my heart feels. I am just so very thankful and happy to have had you in my life. I love you so very much. My heart will miss you but I will keep you close in my memories.
