“ Cherre and I met in 1964 while working for Singer Co. We could never remember exactly how we met because we were in different departments. For a long long time we didn't see each other but kept in touch. Then in 1966, I started working with her once again at a different company. We were just beginning to spend some time together when she became so sick. I have and have had some very good friends but Cherre was the kindest and sweetest ever. I know where she is but I miss her terribly. Rest in peace Cherre, you have earned it!

“ I worked with Cherre for many years and, for most of them, had a lot of contact with her. She was one of the brightest, most pleasant, helpful, and caring people I've ever known. She was a beautiful spirit and we have lost someone truly special.
