“ I miss my friend, my friend that checked on me everyday. She taught me many things, from decorating to how to have fun. I will love her always and she will forever be in my heart! Love Betsy.. “Betty” or “Betsy Ross”

“ Cheryl left her mark in this world. She cared for and raised more children than just her own. If any child was in need, Cheryl was there to do what ever necessary to make sure they were provided for.

Cheryl should have been on a cooking show. She was one of the best. From rib roasts to pasta salad. EVERYTHING Cheryl cooked or baked, was fabulous! She always shared her secrets.....thank goodness for me and my family!

Cheryl should have been an interior decorator! Every wall, space, wreath, basket, or holiday decoration was to perfection! Thank goodness she was ok with me making exact replicas of her work! Cheryl was quiet.....or she could speak her mind!

We had some of those moments too!!!! I'm thankful for every single one of them.

My family and I will forever be grateful for the mark she left on each one of us. We will always remember Auntie Cheryl. ❤️❤️
