“ Dear Jeffery M. Cruz and family,

Although the deep pain that a husband feels when he loses his wife does not easily disappear, I hope that prayer to God and association with true Christian friends have brought you and your family real comfort as you all grieve the loss of Mrs. Cheryl Lynn Cruz.

Numerous Christian families who have lost a family member experience that Jehovah is with them.

Yes, Jehovah “is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots.”—Psalm 147:3.

The God of Love has also given us his promise found at Isaiah 33:24 - “And no resident will say: “I am sick.”

Our family wish to offer our Sympathy to your family at this time.##imported-begin##The Heneries of California##imported-end##

“ Cheryl became my friend when she hired me as her realtor. We became close during all the time we spent together. I would occasionally call her and remind her that I was mad that she moved from Douglasville just as we became friends. She is a very kind and sweet person and fun to laugh with. Jeff I know you and the kids will miss her. Her family was her whole life and she loved you dearly. I pray God gives you comfort as you try to adjust to life without her. Rest in Peace Cheryl knowing how many people loved you.##imported-begin##Sybil Holcomb (Clark)##imported-end##

“ On behalf of my Family and myself, we would like to extend our deepest sympathy to the Cruz family for their loss. Our family moved to Georgia 3 years ago from Maryland. Dillon and our son Roch Padmore met in the neighborhood and became instant friends. Cheryl always welcome Roch into their home and after we moved from the Neighborhood she would always pick him up whenever we were not able to drop Roch at her house. I did not know Cheryl very well but we had a lot of phone conversations regarding our sons, she always had nice things to say about Roch. Eventhough I did not know her very long I knew she was a great mother and a very beautiful person. I know Roch will miss her very much. May her soul rest in perfect peace.##imported-begin##Zoe Sirleaf-Padmore ##imported-end##

“ Cherly was an exceptional person with a very positive and uplifting personality. She was an exemplary mother with overwhelming love for her wonderful children Dalton, Dillon and Olivia! Her family was her number one priority. I know her loss is devastating and she will be deeply missed.

Whether we face death, discouragement, loss, or pain, we can take great comfort in knowing that no sorrow is too deep that God cannot feel it with us. And God wants to help deliver us from it. He wants to bring us his divine comfort. No trial is so great that God cannot deliver us. No pain is so great that he does not bring us comfort. And no situation is ever without God's presence: "Do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand" (Isaiah 41:10)

“ Cheryl, You were a great friend and a wonderful Mom! My best memories are when the kids were all little and played ball together. You, Stacy and I spent a lot of time together watching games and planning decorations for floats. I will miss you. Kids please always remember your Mom loved being a Mom more than anything.
