“ I am very sad to learn of Chris's passing. We used to chat online about Iowa. I will never forget the first night we talked and the laughter we shared. He loved his children so much and constantly talked about you.

“ I met Chris through my business. He started out as my customer, then became my friend and brother in Christ Jesus. We had many talks about life and about our faith in God. Although all of us who love him feel the loss that he is not here with us now, I am glad to know that Chris put his trust in Jesus and is with him now. The last time I spoke with Chris he told me he was tired. Ever since that day, a verse kept coming to my mind when I prayed for or thought of Chris...Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man , the things which God has prepared for those who love Him. I Corinthians 2:9 Thank you Lord God for sending Jesus so that Chris and I and all who trust in your salvation will live with you forever with no more tears, pain or sorrow.

“ Blake & Lindsey, I know this is a hard time in your lives. We have never met, but I knew Chris from a restaurant I used to work at. He was a very wonderful man. Even if someone said something negative about another person, he would never agree or say anything bad. He always looked at the bright side of things. I know that his fight wasn't easy, but I hope that knowing that he is not suffering anymore brings you comfort.

“ I would like to extend my condolences to Chris' family on his passing. I just learned Chris passed away today when I stopped by his shop. I have known him since he opened Finish Line and found him to be an honest and reputable mechanic and an individual who would go out of his way to satisfy a customer. We had several long conversations during his treatment for cancer and I admired the manner in which he dealt with it and how he fought so hard to maintain a quality life. I will miss him and wish those nearest to him only wonderful memories of his life.

“ To the Edwards family,
Please accept my deepest sympathies for your loss. Chris was a devoted dad to Lindsey and Blake. With that said here is my memory and tribute. When both were students at CCA there were certain families that you knew you could count on. Count on to work when you needed them, to offer a hand in a pinch whether working the gate for games or dishing up food in the concession stand. Count on being there to support their child as they played sports, count on traveling to away games. Your family is one of those.

I have a picture in my mind of the dads that "held up" the wall at the end of the basketball court. You know what I mean. That was their preferred place to lean and watch the games and talk to one another. Christ was one of those dads. Always there.

Hold fast to the sweet, fun times. Rest in knowing you were loved, watched over and supported by a wonderful dad. He will be remembered by many with fondness. The mark of a man is how he treats others, how he treats his family and how he conducts business. Your dad left a good one. Love, Deborah Wiggins
