“ Chris was a beautiful little boy and a very beautiful heart. I loved when he was at our house with my son Clay. He was a good influence. I always wondered how he was doing. You don't forget the beautiful children God brings into your life. We recently reconnected. I usually would message scripture & talk with Chris on Facebook. I had not been on it for 4 days. I returned sent him a few messages and didn't get a reply. That was unusual. But it was unusual i had not replied to him. My Dad was unwell and I had an accident. I don't speak things because God is good. I can't complain. I missed communication by just a few days. I only know he is now hidden in Heaven with all my loved ones. I will surely see him again. I am deeply saddened. My whole family is. People just don't come in and out of our lives. Especially not someone like Chris. He became a part of our family on Woodcrest. He was never forgotten and he never will be. We will remember his sweet little heart and soon we will greet each other up there on heaven. God Bless all his family. All are very good people. It was a blessing to be neighbors Dorothy Stephenson
