“ I knew Chris well in middle school. One of my best friends at that age. I'm so sad to hear that I missed his passing by so many years. May his memory be eternal.

“ *Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road
To sweet eternity.
We all have different journey's,
Different paths along the way,
We all are meant to learn some things,
But never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place
Far greater than we know.
For some, the journey's quicker,
For some, the journey's slow,
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.*

Chri's' journey seemed short in our way of measuring time; but to God, his journey was complete, and it was time for him to come Home. We are all Thankful that Chris was here long enough to be a part of our lives. He had the opportunity for each of us to get closer to God. Even if only in his behalf, we prayed for his peace and happiness, daily. God granted our heart's prayers by touching him with ETERNAL LOVE, PEACE AND HAPPINESS.

We love you still Chris. We will see you again when our journey for God is complete. Thank you for the flowers you planted and shared with me, as well as the love..as I watch them grow, I know that they were rooted in Love.

'And the Greatest of these is Love..'

“ Ralph & Linda,
Words cannot express the grief we feel for you at this time. You were the best neighbors and Chris and our boys were great playmates.
God is good and may He comfort you at this time. We pray that you will feel His presence as you grieve and know that he is now in the presence of the Great I Am. We love you.##imported-begin##Paul & Tamra Stanley##imported-end##

“ So little time to be a man but always a child of a king! So little time to begin his own family yet he made a mark on many families! So little time but so many good memories. May he now rest at the River of Life until we meet again!##imported-begin##Cindy Dyer##imported-end##
