“ We have been friends and neighbors for 9 years. Chuck and Mary are fine examples of the Christian walk God hopes for us. My daddy, who went to heaven 4 years ago, always teased Chuck for wearing shorts year round even out in the snow. Our daughter, Brittany has enjoyed going to UGA games with him as he enjoyed life. Chuck has helped babysit our dog as we have been away. We have enjoyed their friendship as a couple in going out to dinners and movies. When my daddy died suddenly 3 weeks before Brittany wedding, Chuck and Mary could not do enough in helping us, wrapping 300 bottles of water, putting gift bags together, shopping for food for us for bridesmaids luncheon, finding hot pink ties for the men and just so much. That's the kind of friend Chuck was. Love others as God has loved you, God's commandment. Chuck was a faithful and fun spirited friend. He will be missed. ♥️ to Mary and family, Jimmy and Connie Bruner

Chuck is one of the finest men I know. Still having a hard time wrapping my mind around his passing. Chuck loved everybody and he took such a special interest in helping my family get my Mama moved to Jerry's. The world has lost a great man. I know that Chuck is with Jesus today and I am thrilled for him, but what a hole there is in my heart for him. You are all in my prayers.

“ Jason, Annie, and Mary I am so sorry for the loss of Chuck. Uncle Chuck was an awesome guy and roll model for me, he had the greatest sense of humor. We had such great times as kids playing ball with Uncle Chuck. Take care, I have been out of pocket the past five years trying to get things together after Dianne, but am planning to make it out to Georgia and Florida again soon. Love always Tim
