“ To the Nwachukwu family,

I did not know Shuma. I wish I did. After reading the wonderful words said about him, I feel as if I missed out knowing a wonderful child, a wonderful human being. I just wanted say how much the entry Shuma wrote regarding his mother touched my heart. His deep, sincere words not only express how much he loved his mother but showed that he had a grasp for life much more than many of us. It is obvious by his words that Shuma understood how much God wants us to love and respect one another especially our mothers. It shows that he, even at such a young age, was wise beyond his years and did not take his blessings for granted. Although I did not have the pleasure of knowing this young man, I have no doubt that his job on this Earth was done as he touch so many (as read) and his words will forever touch many more. God needed another Angel and your son, brother, friend was just the Angel He needed. May you be comforted in the time to come. May God wrap you with strength as He wipes the tears from your eyes. Shuma and you all are in my thoughts and prayers. With love.##imported-begin##Tana Shackelton##imported-end##

“ Chuma was one of my best friends. He was always there for me and all his friends. He would always make me laugh and I knew I would have a great time whenever he was around me. I would go acrosss the street and knock on his door and ask him and Uchinna to come out and play with me and Reece. We would play tag, hide-and-go-seeek, and jump on my trampoline. I will always remember the good times we had together and miss Chuma very much. Your friend forever, Shane Crowley##imported-begin##Shane Crowley##imported-end##

“ Words escape me right now. This comes as such a great shock and loss. Chuma was so very special to me and to everyone who knew him. He possessed such an angelic spirit and beautiful heart. Our loss is heaven's gain. It was such an honor and privledge to be one of the lucky teachers to teach Chuma this year. I loved him dearly. On many occasions Mrs. Argilagos and I would speak about Chuma and I would say I hope one day I have a son just like him. He loved his family and he had wonderful loving parents. I can not even imagine the pain you are all feeling but please know there are so many people who love you and are praying for you. It is such a great tribute to Chuma to have not only adults but fellow students share such wonderful memories of Chuma. He made such a positive impact on everyone's life he came in contact with. I am grateful to have known him.##imported-begin##Kristy Shackelford##imported-end##

“ Chuma was in my class and he was my neighbor. He was one of my best friends in the class. He always sat by Shane and I at lunch. Chuma was one of my friends because he was nice and funny. Shane and I were glad that he was our friend because he was kind of shy. He always liked to play with us when we were at recess. We all miss him and we pray for him every night.

The first day of this school year I walked in and immediatly knew Shuma was a great friend. Shuma was smart and a great athlete. “ This is an entry from the class book that Mrs. Argilagos's class made this school year. All words listed below are Chuma's own words. This is a SMALL example of how TRULY sweet, thoughtful, kind, caring and loving Chuma was! I pray that this reaches you (his family) & helps you cope--you will be proud! We all love Chuma & all of his family. Once again, our thoughts and prayers are with you! I (Kiki) will bring you a copy at the services....

" If I have a review test in science and I have to bring it home to take the test, my splendid mother would help me. My respectful mother will look at the answers then she would look in the book to find the answers. If I got the answer right then we will leave it alone but if I got the answers wrong then she will correct the answers for me. Patient, splendid, respectful...my mother deserves a million. My excellent mother deserves a million. My mother is patient and takes care of us all. My brother, Michael is 12 and has autism. My mother never gets tired of taking care of him. She is patient and teaches us to be patient with him. She helps him, and then helps my seven year old brother Uchenna with his homework. She is patient, kind and caring. My patient, caring and kind mother...deserves a million.

One time when I was really sick my mom was there for me. She would take me to the hospital. When I have to get a shot, if I cry, my mother holds me and calms me down. She is always there for me. My calming, loving mother deserves a million.

My mother always buys things for us, even though she doesn't have a lot of money. She works very hard at her job and it is all for her family. She buys me clothes, food and many, many more. She would do anything to help our family and I thank her for doing this for us. My loving, caring, giving, patient, calming, fair, nice, respectful, splendid, outstanding, warmhearted, great, special, proper, fine and excellent mother deserves a million dollars!!!! "

“ My dearest Mr & Mrs Nwachukwu,
I am a fellow Nigerian and I don't believe we've ever met but my heart went out to you when I read of your little angel-Chuma's-passing. I know you are hurting very much now because I know the kind of love, pride and joy you must have for your son. Only God in His tender mercies can ease the pain...and He will in time. Celebrate the short but highly fulfilled time Chuma spent on this earth for he has positively touched many lives (as written in the testimonies here.)
If there is any assistance that you may need at this time please feel free to contact me at the email above.
May our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ be with your entire family now and even moving forward....##imported-begin##Moji Ariyo##imported-end##

“ Nwachukwu Family,

I have known Chuma for many years; my daughter, Kiki was in his class in both 1st & 2nd grade and they have remained great friends ever since. Chuma was the most wonderful, thoughtful, smart, truly caring boy that I have been fortunate enough to know! He could light up a room with his smile. He would come up to me in the hall & give me the biggest hug everytime he saw me. He loved all of you so much; he would tell me about you almost everytime we spoke and he had the biggest smile & a twinkle in his eyes when speaking of you. I love Chuma as one of my own as I have watched him grow into a fine young man! You should be very proud of yourselves for succeeding in raising such a great kid. I have yet to meet a boy who is as genuinely kind as Chuma. I cannot express my sadness to you, I can only tell you that I love your son and my thoughts and prayers will be with you always. Chuma will always have a special place in my heart. I am here if you need ANYTHING; I don't care how big or small, do NOT hesitate to call me! God bless you and your family! I know Chuma is with God & watching over you at all times.

“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Nwachukwu,
I knew Chuma from a few years in school. He was a good friend. Chuma always gave me his rolls when we had spaghetti for lunch. Chuma helped me kick the ball when I wore flip flops and we were playing kick ball. He once helped me pick up my books and papers when I dropped them in the hall. I know you had to have been proud of Chuma. He was known as one of the smartest students in our class this year and other years. I will remember Chuma as a good friend. My heart is sad that he is no longer with us. I am sad for all of you in your family.
