“ From the very beginning, as Cindy’s in-laws, Cindy was always loving, kind & shared with us, her life with our son, Steven. She was always inclusive & generous with all of Steven’s family & she always wanted to give gifts that she had put so much thought into. Cindy always livened up a room with her enthusiasm, her smile and her inquiring caring for those around her. No matter how bad she felt, she always was concerned about how others were doing. Her presence at any gathering or trip with us, always made everyone enjoy themselves more. She loved her coffee (BIG CUP.) She was an inspiration in courage in the way she faced life and the unknown future. She was a beautiful woman in all ways.

“ Our prayers go out to your family, we would like to express our condolences at this time to the family. The Bible is a great source of encouragement for our times of deepest distress. A comforting thought is at Revelation 21:3&4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away"###imported-begin##Smith Family###imported-end##

“ You were sick and tired and we all knew,that God would soon come to take you.You fought so hard, so very long, but through the pain, you stayed strong.

We all knew there would come a day, when God came to carry you away.It doesn't make it easier to say goodbye,and I try so hard not to cry.

I can't help but feel defeated,or even maybe a little cheated.But how very selfish would I be,to hope and pray you could stay with us.

Know you left a message upon my heart,onewith I will never forget.

So say "Hi" to loved ones waiting on the other side.I know some day; you'll be there when I take that ride.###imported-begin##Kim

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Cindy will truly be missed. I know now she is pain free and will be watching over her children and grandchildren each and every day. She was so excited with the birth of Jax and the announcement of her granddaughter. She is now walking with God and in good hands. Don't ever forget the good times you had with her. Those are prescious memories.###imported-begin##Michael P & Georgia White###imported-end##
