“ Rick, Cindy was your soul mate for over twenty-five years. She was the devoted Mom to Jessica and Julie, who she loved dearly. She was my sister-in-law, but really, I considered her my sister, confidant and friend. For as long as I can remember, we have spent our Christmas holidays together. Really, we have spent many, many holidays, birthdays, graduations, etc. together as a family with George, Mother, Daddy, Scott, Collin and Justin. Our last holiday was this past Fourth of July, when we went tubing town the Coosawattee River. We were supposed to Kayak the next day, but Cindy and I, just couldn't get knocked around much more by the rocks. Instead, we spent all day shopping in Ellijay and finished the evening downtown watching the fireworks display. It is a memory I will always treasure. Cindy had a zest for life. She truly loved her family and friends, and would do anything for anybody at any time. I will never forget all she has done for me.

My family's circle feels broken, but I know Cindy is in an unbroken circle in Heaven with her parents, Butch and Jesus at her side. We will all be together again.

In loving memory,

Connie Cargle Church###imported-begin##Connie Cargle Church###imported-end##

“ Rick; I am so sorry for your lose. I miss you and thinking about you and your girls. My prayers are with you. Please pray for my wife (Carolyn). The morning Nick called and told me about your wife; I was taking mine to the hospital for cancer surgery. She is home now. I wanted to come and see you. This is why I did not. I would be lost without my mate. All the more reason I'm thinking of you... Just try and make it one day at a time my friend. I am so sorry. If I can do anything; I will. “ Julie, Jessica and Rick - My heart aches for you all. Cindy was such a kind, loving, caring, fun filled person and a huge inspiration to so many people. She absolutely had a heart of GOLD. I personally have so many memories and spent many joyous times with Cindy and I will surely never forget them. I was so hoping Cindy would pull through, but she was tired and the good lord above was ready for her to come home and rest. I know when she entered the gates she entered with a smile on her face with so many rewards waiting for her. In this lifetime, we so selfishly want her back, but we have to be thankful for the 51 years the good lord shared her with everyone and what a legacy she left behind. Jew - If you need me, you know I am here for you. R.I.P. Cindy - I love you and miss you soooo much!##imported-begin##Karen David##imported-end##
