“ Clif was smart and witty. He was a wonderful husband and an awesome dad. The Whitley crew was fun in the neighborhood. Lynne, you are a caring wife and mother to your sweet family. Clif is with his Lord and Savior. Prayers and love to your family.

“ December 2000 Clif became a new piece of the Koenecke family puzzle with his wit. He knew that Lynne and her family were from the north but did not realize that they would bring snow to Georgia in December. Over the years we have enjoyed being around him and having a great time.

We are so sorry for your loss, and we will continue to lift up Lynne, Austin, Tyler, John, and Lauren.

We will miss Clif and cherish times we had together, you are in our thoughts and prayers!

“ Clif had such a big personality and was loved by so many! I will miss our constant Political arguments and and banter, he will truly be missed, but his legacy lays with his memories and his beautiful family! We love you all so much!

“ I grew up on the same street as Cliff in Tucker, Georgia in the 1970s and 80s. He was one of our good friends, living three houses down the street. He and my brother were the same age. Cliff was a wonderful guy with a fabulous sense of humor and gentle spirit; warm and open to all that came his way. I'm privileged to have known Cliff and to have had him as a fixture in my childhood growing up in Tucker. He and his family were warm, kind and generous people; my life is better for having known him. Cliff, You're a great man and I'm glad that your suffering is over. Go on out into that beautiful universe and I hope to see you out there again one day. Rest easy, sweet man, and save a joke for me when I arrive.
