“ We were always greeted with his Smile and quickly followed by his Laugh. So genuine, so generous, so talented, so fun, so much Love, so many nicknames (Stereo being my fav, but we had so many for such a great friend/brother), honest, caring, friend, father, husband, son, teacher.... I could go on and on, but not one day goes past without a Cliff reference, impression, memory, or thought. See you on the otherside, my friend, I'm sure you are already running the show. It breaks my heart to write this today. I am always here for "your girls" as you were. Much Love Hollie, Allie, and Gracie. Love, Matt

“ A great generous man. Lost touch with Cliff after he left Skaltek, but will always remember his spirit of fun and the lesson he left with me. "Stop taking life so seriously... and learn to live it." We had many serious conversations as well regarding life after death. I know he is living on. Heaven's light is shining with a little more pizzazz.

“ So many memoies working with Cliff on old cars, sharing lunches, telling tall tales. He called me PSB (Pinstriper Bob) and kept up with me on Facebook. Gone way too soon. I know he woul;d have been at the speed runs in Clayton this weekend. Heart goes out to Holly, Allie, and Grace. Gonna miss the laughter and fun. May he rest in peace.
