

Cliff Thrower

October 15, 1952 - May 9, 2025

Clifford Eugene Thrower passed away peacefully on May 9, 2025, surrounded by loved ones. He was 72 years old. A visitation will be held on Friday, May 23rd, from 3:00pm-5:00pm at Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 209 S Hammond Drive, Monroe, GA 30655.

Born on October 15, 1952, Cliff lived a life full of purpose, hard work, and deep commitment to family, community, and craft. He was the proud founder of both Thrower Electric and Sweetwater Builders, leaving behind a legacy of dedication, skill, and entrepreneurship that touched countless lives.

Cliff served his country with honor in the Air National Guard. He was a Mason, a skilled knife maker, and a devoted steward of the land—raising chickens, searching for arrowheads, hunting, and fishing with passion and pride.

Cliff was a man who could build anything and was always ready to lend a hand on any project. Whether working alongside friends or helping a neighbor in need, his generosity and quiet strength made a lasting impression on all who knew him.

He is survived by his loving wife, Lorraine Thrower; his children with Nancy Thrower—Heather Gibbs (Stephen), Sunshine Levin (Shane), and Zachariah Thrower (Amie); and Lorraine's children, whom he helped raise as his own—

Lisa Bramlett (Ben), Samantha Hester (Gunter), and Dallas Wring (Natalie). He was beloved PawPaw to 13—Cori, Hailey, Eliana, Natania Joy, Blakely, Mason, Charley Kate, Finley, Sawyer, Avery, Brooks, Ridge, Slate— and a loyal brother to Brenda Melton, Donald Thrower, Ronald Thrower, and Carol Vise. He is also survived by the sweetest dog you've ever met, Sadie. He is preceded in death by his parents Adam and Bobbie Sue Thrower, and sister Priscilla Elaine Gresham.

In lieu of flowers, the family would appreciate donations to the Friends of Georgia State Parks & Historic Sites (<https://friendsofgastateparks.org/civicrm/contribute/transact?reset=1&id=2>) to honor Cliff's love for the outdoors.

Cliff's legacy lives on in the lives he built—both literally and figuratively—and in the family and friends who will carry his memory forward with love and pride.

“ I have known Clifford since Tucker Elementary days. He and I were in the same class together for several years. I remember, since our last names started with S and T, we were always near the back of the line; as we went alphabetically for everything. We always nagged the teacher to sometimes let the last go first. We were friends throughout the time there, and I can't remember one argument we had. He was a great spirited person; not to mention one heck of a kickball player. I left Tucker after the 7th grade, wished we had kept in touch. I only saw him once since then at Lenora Park. Both of our daughters were playing a softball game, I believe. We hit it off as if there were no time separation. He got older but his look never changed. He has to be missed, I miss him just sitting here reminiscing. His family was blessed, and may they continue to be.

“ I have fond memories of boating and skiing with Cliff and others on Lake Lanier when we were in high school. He was always a jokester and fun to be around. I'm glad we shared some good times. RIP my friend.

“ Deepest sympathy to the entire Thrower family. Cliff was a good neighbor and helped our son Jason the electrical trade. A fond memory was when the scout team needed an adult to go to Philmont, NM, Cliff stepped up and went. When they got back he said it was the toughest and longest 10 days of his life. Once again sorry for your loss. The Parker family

“ My deepest condolences to the entire Thrower family. Cliff, an amazing man that I learned so much from being around him, and working for him. He said a lot with just a look, had a big presence and heart. He certainly made an impression on me showcasing brain power coupled with hard work as a recipe for success. Prayers to the family for comfort.

“ Cliff was always good to me. Even early on when Heather and I were becoming friends he looked at me like I was some punk trying to get too close to his daughter. lol. He always shook my hand and said hello. One night I was dropping off a birthday card in their mailbox and my truck broke down. They had a very long driveway that was dark and it was nighttime. I walked up to the house and rang the doorbell. He drove me back to my truck and helped me fix it.

Then a few years later he hired me when I was going through a tough time and needed a job. He was tough when he needed to be but very reasonable and understanding too. All of the Throwers are great people. I'm very grateful to them all.

“ The Thrower family were not only Morgan Road, Tucker GA neighbors, but friends. The families of Tucker were always close. Through my initial friendship with Brenda, the rest of the clan absorbed all into the fold. Cliff was a protector and guardian of his siblings and anyone in the area. Cliff's living room band (no garage) was an afternoon gathering spot. Bless his Mom! Many tears and laughter were share and secrets kept. Cliff will be remembered for the size of his heart and we will grieve along with Lorraine and the rest of the family.
