“ Dear Rachael,

I am so sorry. I love you so much and my heart breaks for your loss. We can rest assured and have a certain peace knowing that our beloved Cliff is in heaven with the Father. His word tells us in James that “Your life is like a mist. You can see it for a short time, but then it goes away” (James 4:14 NCV). God also tells us that He has a very specific plan for our lives and that no person lives one day more or less than He intends. “All the days planned for me were written in your book before I was one day old” (Ps. 139:16 NCV).

I know that Jesus loves you and will comfort you, I know that you will see Cliff again -- what a glorious thing, I know that the two of you will be together for eternity.

While you suffer and mourn the loss of your best friend and devoted husband of 64+ years, Heaven is celebrating the induction of a new faithful servant into the Kingdom! I know Cliff is looking down and smiling as he sits at the right hand of the Father.

“ Hi Rachel:

We are so sorry for your loss of Cliff.

If you remember us, we used to live on Lowrance Drive there in Decatur. We lived down the street from you, and your son and daughter in law lived on the corner. We visited some times there in the yard. We all went to Forrest Hills Baptist church at that time. We now live in the Acworth area. We heard about the death from a friend. Cliff was a great person and lived a good life with you and your children.

May God Bless You and your family.

“ Dear Rachel and Family,
Our dear brother Cliff has no more worries.
Rev 21:4, "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away."
May God comfort you. We love you so dearly.##imported-begin##Jessica McPherson##imported-end##
