“ Susan,
I am so glad that you and Ray had such a wonderful marriage. Even knowing that will not make it any easier as you try to adjust to life without him. I knew Ray through my husband Mike Hurst. They were on the softball team together through FB Atlanta. I remember seeing you at some of the games i think. I am also friends with Wanda Buchheit. She let me know about Ray's cancer and his home going. Ray was always so sweet and Mike thought so much of him.
I came across a picture of Ray just a few weeks back at one of the games.
I don't know if you knew that my husband Mike died suddenly a year ago May. I know the journey you are starting and my heart breaks for you. It sounds like you have so many friends and family to draw support from. If you do need to talk, feel free to call me.
Sincerest Sympathy

“ Susan, my cousin, I am so sorry for the loss of Ray, and name sake of my Dad. Ray was loving, giving, compassionate, and was everything a wife needed a husband to be and a very good caregiver to your late great dad Maynard, who passed some two years ago. I am sure they are catching up in heaven. My heart goes out to you and the family

“ Ray walked into our restaurant (Kellie's Home Cooking) years ago and I immediately recognized him as a pitcher I faced 40 years ago at Auburn in Fraternity intramurals. He was the "House Dad" at the fraternity house and in Graduate School so he could still compete even though he was "older". He could "bring it" and had some junk as well. It was always great to see him when he came to eat! We had great talks about Auburn Athletics and Old Times! I will see him again one day and will greet each other with "War Eagle"!

“ Ray was such a helpful part of our community here at Lake Wellbrook. Our family is very saddened by your loss, Susan. Our kids remember Ray's encouragement in school at Grayson High, UGA, or Georgia Tech (even though none attended Auburn!) And what a great witness he was as a true follower of Christ and God's Holy Word. We appreciated discussions about our Christian faith and how we can be better witnesses to those who followed false "prophets." We know right now where Ray is and we know we will see him in the blink of an eye. We grieve with you that he has gone from us, temporarily. We are here for you Susan. Call or text if you need anything, anything. Love You! Brenda, Jay, Ben, Mark, Grace, Marlie and Moose

“ was sad to learn of Ray's passing. I am confident that Ray has gone to a better place, I knew him fairly well from our careers with Gwinnett County Gov't. I am a (ret.) District Maint. Coordinator from G.C. Parks/ Rec. Ray was our County Safety Officer. I learned early on that Ray was a "born-again Christian brother". This was evident not only from conversations with him, but also from the way he conducted himself. My heart and prayers go out this morning to his wife and the rest of his family. If I can be of help pls. contact me by email----wesleybeth@bellsouth.net. May God comfort you during this time of sorrow. Wes Abernathy.
