“ *My names is Freddie Harmon from Gaffney SC and friends of the Callison family.
I'll never forget that day in Vietnam (1969) a Full Biird Colonel name Thomas Vassey came to visit me. He had a policy to visit any soldier in Nam that was from Gaffney. I knew I would see him one day, because Helen told my Daddy to let me know the Colonel would come by. I was talking to Col Vassey and my first Sargent shouted for him to get off my desk. When the Col turned and Top saw those Eagles on his shoulder, Top almost knocked himself out saluting. Top said to me after the Col left, why didn't you tell me he was a Col. I told Top, you didn't give me a chance

“ Tom (nickname Sonny) made a tremendous contribution to his extended family by collaborating with another cousin, Rion Vassy, to research and publish a compilation of family history going back several generations. It has anchored and linked our family and indeed contains many "Precious Memories". We'll miss him, and will be remembering Mary and children. Dave and Becky Vassy
