Nearing Family - I am sorry for the passing of your mother Coleda. My mother has Alzheimer's and dementia and her memory has faded. I was clearing out some things and came across a tub full of cards. My heart couldn't just throw them away yet I knew they had to go. I decided the least I could do would be to read through them one last time. In the tub were Christmas cards over the years from a Coleda Nearing in Stone Mountain GA. As I've made my way through the cards I've had the wonderful fortune to read the words of friendship and love my mother and Coleda shared. Surprised to find Coleda even asking about me in a card. I wondered what had happened to Coleda and found this page. I truly wish I had gone through the box of cards a month or so earlier. Sadly I will not tell my mother of Miss Coleda's passing. I will let her carry what memory she has. I am grateful for the glimpse into a friendship that they shared and that my mother kept in cards for me to glimpse. My deepest condolences and sympathies on behalf of my mother Earline Craft.

“ Wow, How wonderful to be with family your whole life and care and share the joy! I remember mom telling childhood stories of swimming in the Colombia river and when we got to come and spend the night one time. Using the outdoor bathroom and all the childhood fun of playing together. She will be missed and was the last of a long line of Sanders...Love to you cousin Donna, you were blessed to have her this long. Love to your Family... blessings , Deon Milburn McCracken.

“ To my dear friend, we love you. I saw you going up to heaven. Jesus reached out to you and said "Come on Coleda we've been waiting for you". You ran up to him and clung to him crying, "Jesus, Jesus ". He said, " Come and see the mansion I have prepared for you." But you only had eyes for Jesus. The burden of life is now gone and your body is strong and whole. You are blessed as you have blessed so many. You have made a deep and lasting impression on me. I will continue to be blessed each time i remember the times we had together.
