“ My deepest condolences to the Street family. I have known Kelly over 20 years as my Sister’s much loved Father-in-Law. Kelly was such a nice man and one thing that stands out is how deeply devoted of a family man he was. That alone speaks volumes of a man’s character. May happy memories of a life well lived stay with you forever. God bless you all!

“ I have a lot of memories with my cousin growing up but I’ll share one here. We were always together on holidays. My Dad owned a bakery and pizza place. So we would sit and watch wizard of oz eating donuts and pizzas. Which he loved of course.
