“ Craig, this is Mom! I cannot begin to tell you the joy it has been to be your Mother. Both in all the good times and even in the not so good times. I will always cherish the memories of our many last conversations we were able to share during your final days. You were so strong, we cried some and laughed a lot, you told me stories even I didn't remember of things long ago. I especially remember you laughing when telling me "mom, we always acted like we were part of the Kennedy's, even when we didn't 2 Nichols to rub together. And yes, you would often call me your Ms.. Astor". I hope you know you will always be in my heart. Please enjoy your new life as our Angel in Heaven and watch over us until I can join you. I love you so much Mom.

Beautiful and so heartfelt words from a mother to her son. I am thinking of you and yours now and the pain of the loss. Thank God you had those talks before he said goodbye. So often we don't get that chance. Remember the good times and the bad times will pass but the good will always be with you. Much love to you and yours. Linda
