“ I happily found Craig through face book after many years. I am so happy for that! We were close as kids even though he was 9 years older than me. I spent countless weeks at his house as a child with aunt virginia and uncle johnny! I will miss you cuz!!

“ I knew Craig and his family from 1977-1983 when they lived in Anaheim, Calif. You couldn't ask for a better friend than Craig. He would be there at 3:00 AM if you asked. He would always say and do things to make people feel happy and good, From practical jokes to kind words when needed, Craig was the master of good times and will always live on in my memory and the memories of all his friends and family.

“ My brothers and I lived 3 houses down from Craig on Andover Ave in Lorain. Ohio..it seemed like he was always into something but there was never a moment where you just couldn't help like him!! He had his moments like most kids but he was always respectful to others...we finally got the chance to talk to him after forty years & it was as if we were still on Andover talking in the driveway...he was a great person and it p pleasure to have known him....
