“ Ms. Nussy, you were a second mom to many of us in Brooklyn. From 518, to Utica & Snyder to Kings HWY, you always made room for me when times got rough at home. I'll never forget our many bus rides, parties and outings. You have left me with lasting memories of love, tenderness, care and your stunning beauty! Sleep well Ms. Nussy, for us who adore you, both near and far, the remarkable legacy of your respect and kindness dwells with us in the fabric of your children. With ALL our love, Lori [The Morgan / Anderson / Nelson Family]

“ It is with a heavy heart that I honor the life of Mrs. Smith, a woman of kindness, grace, and generosity. She had a heart that welcomed others with warmth, and I was blessed to be one of those she graciously accommodated when I visited with my friend. Her kindness was not just in words but in the way she made people feel —valued, seen, and cared for. Thank you for the honor of meeting you and I am blessed to know your daughter who is a reflection of the legacy you have left behind.

“ My mom was the epitome of a virtual woman. She loved, cared, prayed, committed and sacrificed herself, helped others, was jovial and made you laugh. She taught me lifeskills even when I was hard headed. Your love taught me to love harder and your love for Christ allowed me to seek Christ as well. I love you mom and many loved you too. Your gift was to be a pillar in your community for all the children's lives you have touch with the daycare you and dad shared. You will truly be missed and remembered daily. Love you mom 🍷💔💔💔

“ On Tuesday January 28, 2025 at approximately 8:30 am my entire mood and plans for that day changed dramatically and will linger for a long time in my mind after receiving a call from Caleta stating that Mom passed away this morning. As a very long and close family life type of relationship I am equally greived and share the pain and loss of her transition.

Our beloved CURDEL SMITH popularity known as Nessie was more than a mother,wife, and grand mother. I am sure that anyone who knew her can attest to giant of a person she was in terms of her love, kindness, consideration, thoughtfulness, willingness to help in times of sadness and difficulties. She distinctly had a deep passion for family values, and immense love for children She exhibited and contributed honorably to her local community and was seriously devoted to her Church.

Her life, friendship, and demeanor encompassed all aspects of life, and clearly each was special to her, from phone call chats, family outings, and sharing informal and formal meals.

Much more can be said about Nessie, but how do you put into words just how much Nessie's life meant.

I am sure we are all grateful for the time spent, and fir the love and friendship shared during her remarkable life.

She will be missed dearly by her entire family, as well as numerous extended family members znd friends

May her soul rest in peace.
