“ Ken, you and Lynne have been such sweet neighbors to us on Walker Ridge. I loved seeing you both in the yard and I could stop and talk to you! Lynne was always so welcoming and pleasant. I remember one time that I found some peaches at a farmer's market and I left some on your porch because you were not home. In just a few days I had a jar of peach/ginger jam and a jar of blackberry jam from blackberries she picked on the road. She taught me a lot of what it means to be a neighbor. I will miss her. I know you will too.
