“ Cindy and I were young Army wives together. Her family became mine before We left for Germany together. We were 17 and 18 years old then. We spent so much time together. A lot of memories are going thru my head right now. My heart is broken. Though we were apart for many years after that I was blessed to be reunited with her last summer for a day. I am so thankful for that time. I know I will see her again one day but for now I will always regret that our lives didn't come back together sooner.

The most important thing is that you got to see her last at her best not sick. You have that to hold on to. We enjoyed that day.
