“ Dallas This is hard for me man as i know its just as hard for everybody else...When I write this I speak from the heart from everybody that you considered your family in Texas...We Love you and Miss you so much.... I wish i would have known sooner wish i wouldnt have found out 2 months afterwards....Remembering the times we spent hanging out at Belton Lake and the crazy fun we had is what is my cruch..I cant really write anymore its to hard to face the fact that my brother has been stripped from me and its even harder to come to terms that the last time we talked it was only for a short time but if i would have known this would happen i would have made the chat longer I love you bro know your always in my heart and same with Katrina , Momma Vicky, and the rest of us that loved you so bro... Rest in Peace brother till next timeFarwell Brother##imported-begin##Jeremy Hill##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. My only child, Jason died due to an accident in 2008. He was 30. Not married and no children. Only through the grace and strength of God have we survived, however his grace is sufficient and there have been so many marvelous things he has done in ways that are obvious that he did. Put all your trust in him and he will keep his arms around you. Your good memories will become treasures. Only think of the good. May God be very real to you.
I know Martha and Charles from Ebenezer. I used to be the pianist there years ago .##imported-begin##Janice Knight##imported-end##

“ Sharon, we are so sorry to hear about your loss. We can't pretend to know what you are going through, but know that we are here on Earth but a short time and you will see him again soon. And what a joyous occasion that will be. Remember the joy that he brought you and see him in his son Jacob. Your grandson will need your strength. Know that you and the family will be in our thoughts and prayers. If you need us, you know where to find us. We love you.##imported-begin##Jack & Connie V.##imported-end##

“ I am sorry for your sudden loss. May looking forward to the fulfillment of these scriptures give you encouragement. Revelation 21:4, 1Corinthians 15:26, and more than all else I look forward to the fulfillment of John 5:28,29. That scripture means that we will have the opportunity to see our loved ones again. Where will some of these blessings take place? Please read Psalm 72:7,8. There you will find the answer. I hope that these scriptures will be of encouragement to you and your family. If you have any questions or need for further comfort, contaact me at e-mail address.##imported-begin##FH##imported-end##

“ It seems like yesterday that Deztinni and Dallas became really good friends in Elizay. I so miss the days that we would spend there. I know I wasn't as close as I should have been, it is ashamed that a family has to be so spread apart. But how I remember the days I would spend at Aunt Mott's house and the fun and love that fills my heart when I think about it. Sharon, I really don't know what to say, I am truly sorry for your loss, I can't imagine how you must feel. Just remember we are family and I will always love you.....##imported-begin##Tina L. “ Martha Faye and Sharon,
My heart goes out to you guys. Wish Nanny, Mom, and I could be there Wed but unfortunately work won't allow it. Know that we will be there in spirit and you guys are in our thoughts and prayers. Aunt Martha- if you guys need anything, pls get my number from Nanny and let me know. I live on the northwest side of town and am just a phone call away. I'll never forget little Dallas.....hard to believe him and Deztinni both were already 23. I pray that God gives you guys the strength to get through this tragedy. Just remember that you guys are surrounded mu love and prayers.....may god bless ya'll....
Love,
