

Dalton Pierce McClure

January 11, 2002 - March 29, 2019

Dalton Pierce McClure, age 17 of Loganville where he was a junior at Walnut Grove High School, passed away on Friday, March 29, 2019. Dalton was a kindhearted, soft spoken “Simple Man” who was willing to help others any way he could. He was a car enthusiast, Ferrari’s being his favorite. He saw his career in bodywork. He was an avid fan of Texas A & M Aggies and the Boston Celtics, with Kyrie Irving as his favorite player. In the past year, he has had the privilege of seeing both teams play live with his family. Music also played an important role, loving classic rock (especially The Beatles), and it was often on when enjoying time outdoors playing basketball, swimming, and four wheeling. He loved his dogs: Shadow, Daisy, Ollie and Bullet. Family time during holidays brought out the most enjoyment with sports and time with his cousins. He was considered spoiled between his sneaker collection, his dad’s cooking, and his mom’s excessive pampering.

He is survived by his parents, Doug and Maggie McClure and sister, Taylor of Loganville; grandmother, Joan Mahoney of Loganville; grandparents John and Margaret Sokoloski of Nanticoke, PA; and his aunts and uncles: Greg Mahoney of Stamford, CT; Pam Pennington of New Market, MD; John McClure, husband of Angelika, of Westerville, OH; Paula Housenick, wife of Tom, Shickshinny, PA; Lisa Czapracki of Coatesville, PA; Steven Batt, husband of Tracey, Winder, GA. He has 10 cousins.

He was predeceased by his great grandparents William and Margaret Annick of Scranton, PA; Mary and Mike Maransky of Sweet Valley, PA; Isabel and John Pierce McClure (Dalton's namesake) of Shickshinny, PA; and grandfathers, Paul Mahoney of Scranton, PA and Jack McClure of Shickshinny, PA.

A celebration of life is planned for the summer, one of his favorite times of the year. Arrangements by Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 670 Tom Brewer Road, Loganville, GA 30052. 770-466-1544. Please sign the online guest registry at www.stewartfh.com

In lieu of flowers, the McClure family wishes donations be made to St. Jude's Hospital or to help veterans in need by donating to David's Drive 831, mailing address 1 Somerset Drive, Coatesville, PA 19320.

“ Hi Dalton, One of my fav Beatle songs is, Let it Be...I liked them too. I love you and miss you terribly. There will always be an empty spot in my heart, with your name on it buddy. I love you.

Dear Mags, Doug and Taylor, I...we...will be there for you...to cry, to laugh, to share memories, to be encouraging, to support and listen. Your family loves you and we will support you through this. God will get you through this. And your friends will help to get you through this. Praying God's loving arms are wrapped around you in such a loving, precious way that you somehow find peace you need. I love you guys. Aunt Pam you were my first friend ever, and I'm glad that I knew you. Me and Esperanza are deeply sad that you have left us, but we know that you are in a better place. I never got to tell you, but you meant a lot to me, and I know i told you that I liked you. I thought you were awesome, funny, sweet, kind, and a good hyung. (brother in korean) I really miss you, WE really miss you. Please know that our tears are for you, and your family who are grieving.

Mr and Mrs. McClure,
your son was an amazing person. He came to me when I moved here, and welcomed me with a smile. He was in some of my classes, and I am so sorry for the lost of Dalton. I know how hard it is to lose someone really close to you. I hope that you can understand what he was feeling when he made his decision, as I have plenty of times. Just know that Me and Esperanza are here for him, and here for you.

Love, Dawn Starks

“ Dalton was the 1st kid i met at Walnut Grove and we had 1st and forth block together. I went over to his house one day freshman year and we watched football games and played sports in the yard. We were bestfriends and always will be. I am very sorry for this heart breaking loss. He will be forever remembered in my mind and all those he touched. Thank you for raising an amazing kid.

“ Dalton,

These last few days have been the hardest of my life. I cannot even comprehend my feelings. You were the one I went to when I could not find my happy place. You were my happy place. There was something about you that drew me in the first day I met you. I will never forget that day. You changed my life, and I am a better person because of you. I wish that I had told you what you meant to me. I do not know if it would have changed anything, but I wish I would have told you. Told you how much you meant to me. How much I care about you. How much I truly love you as a person. As my friend.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. McClure,

You may not personally know me, and I do not know if he ever brought me up, but he was a light in my life. He helped me when I was lost. He meant the world to me. It breaks my heart every time I think of him, and I can not even imagine what you must be feeling. I am so utterly sorry. I cannot even put in words how sorry I am. I am praying for you all the time.

“ Mr. & Mrs. McClure,

I am so sorry for your lose. Dalton was my best friend. He knew absolutely everything about me. He was an amazing friend to me. When I was having a tough day he was there to give me a hug or when something would happen that made me sad I could call him or text him and he would talk to me until it got better. He had so much love in his heart. I remember one day in psychology class after we had finished our assignments he was telling me about his dog Oliver and how when you go to pet him while he is laying down the he would growl and he acted it out for me. I had never laughed so hard in my life. He never failed at putting a smile on my face. I truly am sorry for your lose. Many many prayers for your family.

“ Dalton,
Words are hard to find. I think back of the times we spent together, with our entire crazy family gathered under one roof. Ha. Those were good memories. I'll never forget those. Me, Matt, and the kids all had so much fun playing football in the freezing snow. You'll be missed so much. Your parents, grandparents, family, all your crazy cousins... we will all desperately miss you. We love you bud. Hold down the fort. Until we meet again one day as beautiful angels in heaven, Fly free and let peace eternally be with you.

“Dalton was like a best friend to me. With all the trash talking in basketball and how good players are, this and that, we related on many levels. Mine and my brother Trey’s daily routine was drop our book bags off at the house after getting off of the bus and then “what’s Dalton doing” shooting basketball, talking about the four wheeler, anything. My heart hurts for the family after their loss, he was a good kid.

“I had the pleasure of having Dalton in my American Literature class this past year. He was always polite, kind, and incredibly insightful. I enjoyed reading everything he wrote as I viewed him as an old soul who understood much more than most individuals his age.

I am so incredibly sorry for your loss. I cannot begin to imagine your heartbreak. Thank you for sharing your beautiful boy with me. I will hold you close to my heart in the days ahead.

Dalton, you were my first friend when I moved here. You always made me laugh, and you were such good friends to me and Esperanza Walker. I really miss you a lot and hope that you are in a better place. We all miss you here in Walnut Grove High School. I loved your memes, your personality, basically everything about you. I wish you were still here.

Dalton, you were my first best guy friend here at Walnut Grove high school. When I moved here, I did not know who anyone was, then you appeared, literally out of nowhere, and said "Hey you new here? Welcome." He introduced himself, and we became friends and I had him in my language arts class with Mrs. Fortson and he made us all laugh with his humour. He was just an amazing person and I am glad that I knew him. I love you so much, and miss you even more. You are always in my thoughts.
