“ I met Dalton for a callback after discovering his brilliant talent at showcase . I was elated when he notified me he would like to sign with this agency ! I had the pleasure of being Dalton’s talent agent , and he was one of my favorites! He was truly gifted in his craft, a delight to be around, and dedicated to his family, friends and acting. I used to look forward to seeing Dalton’s next audition tape because he was so awesome at bringing the character to life . Not only did he deliver in his acting, but he delivered in really being a genuine individual. I remember about a year ago when I contacted him just to check on him during the pandemic, I asked him if there were any special prayers he had , and selflessly, he had a specific request for his mom and dad. He has left a legacy for all that has had the pleasure of knowing him. He will not be forgotten . My deepest condolence to the family . I will continue to keep the family in my prayers. I know I can’t possibly know the pain you feel, but I do know only God can heal your heart , in this loss , so I am praying for your healing through this .

“ Dalton was one of my first friends when I moved to Atlanta. We met at a play, hit it off, traded numbers, and went to go see an improv show the next week. His smile and laugh were contagious. Whether we were just hanging out, helping each other with an audition, or making a comedy video for instagram, I always loved spending time with him. I remember more than once starting a movie in my living room, then pausing it and just proceeding to have a conversation for an hour instead... Such a kind, sweet human being. I'm so sorry for your loss. He was a light and made the world a better place in the time he was with us.

“ Dalton was such a bright light, especially in the theatre. It's such a loss. I treasure all the times I worked on a show with him. I am so happy that I was able to see the performances of "Dilemmas With Dinner". I keep the family in my prayers and I hope Dalton is in peace.

Sincerely,
Marty Snowden
