“ I just want to thank you for sharing your dads life with my wife and myself over these past (almost) 7 yrs. Cheryl loved him so much. They talked almost daily. He sent "goodie" bags to me for over 3 yrs as I recovered from multiple surgeries. He opened his life to us, cared about us and always kept us informed of all of you and how proud he was of all your lives. I loved his jokes, stories and his outlook on life. We will miss him greatly as he touched many lives with a soft hand shake and a warm smile. Firm but soft - he will never be forgotten by either of us. He became a part of our heart. Thanks also for allowing us to participate in Tuesdays services. Always,

“ *Dee, Eddie, Bridgett, and Austin, Grieving with you today and celebrating your father and grandfather's precious life. I remember fondly the stories you told us at the castle. I've been praying for you all and will continue to. My father died a couple of years ago as well. "For the Lord has heard the voice of my weeping...the Lord receives my prayer." Psalm 6:9 This is the way the Lord wants me to minister--I am praying during the funeral for expressed love and hope and strong awareness that God is surrounding and upholding you and caring for your dad.
I didn't know your dad but I see the fruit of his life in you Eddie , Austin and Bridgett---and I am blessed as are many people. Thank you for your influence in my family's life.
"The Lord is near to the broken-hearted, and saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Ps. 34:17-18) I am already rejoicing in His compassion and care for you today.
Loving you deeply and aching to uphold you through this grief,

“ The last time I saw Dan was this summer in Myrtle Beach. Margaret, Keith and I had dinner with him at the condo and he spent the evening telling us stories about some of his adventures. When he left to go to bed I realized who he reminded me of: my own grandfather, who was also a self made man with a great sense of humor and an amazing business sense and ability to find opportunities where other people saw dead ends. I will think of him every time I show nieces and nephews the "Two little birdies sitting on a limb, one named Jack and one named Jim" trick. All my thoughts to Keith and all of the family.##imported-begin##Molly Bowes##imported-end##

“ Dee, and all of the family.
Was so sorry to hear of Dan's passing. I only saw him a couple of times a year when we went to H.E. for vacation. We always had a little chat on the deck. He will always be in my thoughts and prayers.
I will miss seeing him in April when we visit. He was such a giving person. Love Charlie and Paulette , North Kingstown, RI###imported-
