“ Dan,

You used to beat me up all the time. I could never win. The last 10 years we drifted apart. After you died I learned more about my brother in days then I did in 10 years. Everyone loves you, misses you, and your spirit carries on forever. God bless your life, soul, and eternal memory. I love you so much and I wish you were still here. I'm so sorry, brother.##imported-begin##Joe##imported-end##

“ Uncle Frank, Aunt Donna, all other dear family memebers., You are all in our thoughts and prayers. My family grieves with you at this sad time. When Dad told me about Daniel I could not help to think back to happier times as children when we used to ride on the St. Bernards like horses. I will remember Daniel as the smiling happy cousin from my childhood.

Love always,
