“ I may have forgotten the day's date, but I will never forget the first time I met Danny Moon some 25 plus years ago. We were all over at Weiss lake fishing a Crappie tournament. We were all outside the motel's parking lot talking, but mostly trying to hear what Danny Moon was saying. He was always the person you wanted to be fishing beside tournament morning. Any way a true HERO to me and a great person, but most of all a man that I could call my friend. Will miss him greatly.

“ I only Knew Danny for 20 some odd years . They were the most enjoyable years of my life! We shared civil war history he called me Yankee. He read everything and we debated on Kellies Restaurant porch over coffee. I will miss my Marine buddy !! To Trish and all the Moon Family our deepest sympathy. Ron and Pat Esarey
