“ *Dear Darlene's Family,
Darlene and I worked together for several years at The Coca-Cola Company. The last time I saw and talked to Darlene was about a year ago at JC Penney Furniture Store Outlet. We talked at length. She was smiling and seemed happy then, and that's the way I remember her--always pleasant to talk to and to be around. I feel sadden that I did not get the news about Darlene's demise soon enough yesterday to attend the memorial services; however, please know that you are in my prayers, and good thoughts of Darlene will forever be present. May God bless you, and Darlene, we will miss you; however, I believe you are in a better place.
In loving memory,

“ I attended Darlene's service on Saturday with another friend and we enjoyed the celebration. We both have many memory's from Lee Street School and Brown High School. We both have been in touch with her in recent weeks and we seen her last at the West End get together in 2006. We both wished we would have made the time to spend more time with her. She was a beautiful person with a silly laugh and a wonder smile. Everyone will miss this wonderful lady and she was so blessed with such a wonderful husband, daughter, and son-in-law. Our prayers are with the family, Shirley Stapp and Frances Norton##imported-begin##Shirley Stapp Davis##imported-end##

“ Reid Family,

I was blessed to have worked with Darlene for several years as her Disney Store Manager. I cannot remember anyone bringing me more joy when they walked in the door to work. Her wonderful smile and joyful laughter always brightened my day, as well as that of her customers, and I will carry her delightful and loving memory and her joy of life with me forever. Please accept my sympathies but know that she is celebrating from above right now.##imported-begin##Karen Howlett##imported-end##
