“ I did not know David but I know Amy from on line and phone chats and through Instagram. How strange and wonderful that such things can bring two people who never knew each other their whole lives close together. I could tell Amy was a good person and happily married. We became good friends and I am so sorry for her loss. Even tho I never met either of them I could tell David and Amy had a good marriage, something we need more of in todays world. May God soothe Amy’s heart and may her friends and children help her through her loss through love. I will be praying for her here in Michigan. Rosanne Bittner

“ David was Truly A Great Guy to know! I met David through a good friend in Springfield, MO, at the Legendary “Big House” A place our group of guys and gals knew as a Perfect Place to drink beer, sit around and talk, listen to music, cookouts, and Just Sometimes, Have The Best Party’s In Springfield! And of course David Anderson was there for All the Great Times we all had! We got to be Good Friends and ran around a lot together. From the party’s, to going out to Ramon’s Bar, to trying to play golf, to driving to St Louis and KC for Concerts and Baseball Games, and Spring Break in Daytona Beach, David was there in the middle of all of it. I lost track of David later when he moved and got a job with Lear Jet, but those memories will Always be there for myself and our group to remember him!!! Rest In Peace!!! Danny Phillips

“ I was so lucky to know David and have him as a friend while in Springfield Mo. I lost touch with him when I moved to South Carolina in the early 80's, but with his huge circle of friends, it didn't take long for the word of his passing to make it to me. Even though it was years ago, the fun times and memories we made with David "Meathead" in our group of misfits are as clear and memorable as if it was yesterday. He was the one that we always wanted with us in our adventures. My condolences to the family, Godspeed David.

“ I got acquainted with David through mutual friends from his high school days in Mansfield MO. Although he didn't go to college with us he seemed like a college mate because he was with us so much of the time. He even went on a Spring Break to Florida with our group of friends. All I or my friends knew him by was his nickname at the time -Meathead. Nobody called him David. We all share special Meathead memories & his friends have been sharing them with each other ever since we learned of his death. They are Loving & Laughing memories!
One of David's special characteristics is that he never displayed anger or said a bad thing about anyone! He was so easy going & Happy! My heart goes out to his family
