

David Stephen Chitwood

June 19, 1956 - August 17, 2023

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of David Stephen “Steve” Chitwood, 67, of Loganville. Steve passed away peacefully at home on Thursday, August 17 surrounded by his loving family. Born in Marietta, he had deep rooted ties to Clayton County where he resided for almost 50 years.

He was a dedicated firefighter in Clayton County for 35 years having proudly risen through the ranks and retiring in 2007 as a Lieutenant. Steve was a man who enjoyed the simple things in life - family, friends, pets and his beloved sports teams. He was a lifelong avid fan of all sports Atlanta - the Bulldogs, Braves and Falcons and if not watching the games, he could be heard talking about them. Steve was a dutiful son, a patient yet stern father, a fun loving brother and a friend to all. He spent as much time as possible in the mountains with family and friends enjoying the peace and serenity.

Steve was preceded in death by his parents Robert and Shirley Chitwood; and a sister, Angela Hill. He is survived by his wife Carol Chitwood, son Billy Chitwood, step-daughter Kristi Farmer, sister Karen Atkinson, of Martin, Georgia, four grandchildren, Carson Chitwood, Angyl, Zack and Dakota Farmer and four great grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Clayton County Adopt a Fire Station Program.

Arrangements by Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 670 Tom Brewer Road, Loganville, GA 30052. 770-466-1544. Please sign the online guest registry at www.stewartfh.com.

Tribute Wall

JK

“ Steve will always be remembered for his kind nature and love for his family.
Rest in Peace my friend

Jeanie Knowles - August 30, 2023 at 09:07 PM