

David Garmon

September 19, 1947 - December 7, 2021

Cleveland “David” Garmon, 74, passed away on Tuesday, December 7, 2021. David battled brain cancer for the past 2 years and peacefully passed at home surrounded by his loving family in Ooltewah, TN.

David was born September 19, 1947 in Fulton County, GA. David graduated from South Gwinnett High School and then was drafted into the 25th infantry division of the United States Army. He completed two tours of duty in Vietnam from December 8, 1968 to July 18, 1970. During his service, he was awarded the Bronze Star Medal with valor, Navy Cross, and Navy Commendation Medal.

David started off his career working under his father in building and construction, where he spent the majority of his career. At retirement, he was a well known interior trim carpenter.

David loved the Lord and grew up attending Mountain Park Baptist Church. He was baptized at Rockbridge Baptist Church and then continued his fellowship at Rosebud Baptist Church.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Cleveland Buck and Martha Buffington Garmon; brother, Donnie; sister, Marsha; and close friends and family.

He is survived by his wife, Elaine “Toots” Garmon of Ooltewah, TN; son, Bryan Garmon of Chattanooga, TN; daughter, Chasity Brooks Whitener of Monroe, GA; son, Jonathon Garmon of Jackson, GA; daughter-in-law, Stephanie Garmon of Las Vegas, NV; grandchildren, Jordan Garmon of Hilton Head, SC; Bryson Garmon of Charleston, SC; Daylyn Garmon of Las Vegas, NV; Parker Garmon of Chattanooga, TN, and his” little girl”, Amelia Garmon of Chattanooga, TN; along with several nieces and nephews.
