“ This is Gayle Williams Sims David's first cousin again and I want to say as the June bug flew around the leg would pull off, and I was horrified, but David told me it would grow another one. Being he was older and wiser than me I believed him. So David was kind hearted and comforting type of a person. I think them are great qualities to have. Just knowing he is gone will make me miss him. Living down here in Hampton, GA, I think of all my cousins quite often and pray all is alright. I will miss him even though he was no longer in my ever day life. He strongly was in my past. And he was family, and I love all my family. We have no uncles or aunts left, so it is just the cousins and I have wanted to have a first cousin and second and third cousin reunion and us see each other, but in 1992 I fell and broke my back, so I can no longer travel or do much of anything. I am so sorry we can not have the reunion, though David is gone I have many cousins left and I would just enjoy a reunion. I am just not able to do it. Know I love each and everyone of you. You are all welcome to come visit me. I would enjoy any visit from any of you. My phone number is 678-545-0867 land line. email is TheMalibu195@gmail.com contact me. That is an open invitation to ALL.

“ I am Gayle Williams Sims and I am Davids first cousin, and I must say David was one of my most favorite cousins. I live in Hampton, Ga, so I have not seen David in a few years and David was just 2 years older than me, but when we were young and I think they lived in Gainesville, Ga. We went and spent the day with them and my Aunt Little Mae, as we called her, cook one of the best black berry cobblers I have ever eaten, and us kids were out in the field catching June Bugs. I was scared to death to touch one and David would tie a string to the bugs leg. We held the string and the bug would fly around. I think of this memory often as I will continue to. We will meet again one day, and not live so far apart, and see each other often. I hope there are June Bugs in heaven, but that is the only bug I want to see. I am praying for you all. David is not in our past, He just moved to our future.

*Love and Hugs to You All,
Gayle*
