“ Met David in the county jail in our mid 20's. We were both on a low security work detail and became friends talking about Jesus Christ and our need for Jesus to be our focus and guide in life when we got out, to walk the good path and Shine the Way for others. I lost track of David after I got out and don't know what challenges he faced in life. I know deep down he had a good heart and I think he did ask Jesus to be his Lord. I think I will see him in Heaven.
