“ Been 40 years since I've seen him . Remember David as a kind and good friend with a warm smile and a good laugh. Glad to have met him and spend a little time around him. May he rest in peace and his family and friends find solace at this time. (and didnt he used to put a workman jumpsuit over his clothes and slip into the Atlanta Municipal Auditorium side door disguised as maintenance to see concerts there? Classic memory)

“ Tears mixed with smiles. David was such a great caregiver and fun guy to hang out with. I told him that I think he missed his calling as an RN . He was excited about having time now to be a "grandpa" so was not interested in enrolling in nursing school at this time. And ... NO ONE, hands down, could throw a peace sign with more meaning than David Reeves! He loves his family and even made friends feel a part of it.
