“David and Jo would visit us at Creekside and he'd pop into the main office with a truly corny Dad joke! He always made us smile, laugh and groan at his jokes. He was the best and will be missed greatly. RIP David.

I'll always remember your dad at our family get togethers. He'd be smiling and ready to greet everyone by name, with a great hello, how are you doing, and of course he had his one-of-a-kind sense of humor that he never failed to share. He was loved, and loving and we'll all miss him.

I recall the Reichard Family growing up in Stone Mountain and Dave was always quick with a joke and a smile. He was a great husband and father. I wish my Dad had developed a few of his great qualities.
