“ Dave's warmth and creativity will be greatly missed. Growing up I got to know Dave's quotable sense of humor, many times from second-hand accounts because his clever ideas were quotable and attributable to his sensibilities. In person he was greatly interesting to talk to, and was always supportive and insightful about the ideas we discussed in our brief encounters. In those ways and others I know he'll live on in many other people.

My deepest condolences to the family and his many friends.

“ David has to be on of the funniest and most creative people I have ever met. He would come up with the most random ideas for a party and always made sure all felt welcome. The best part of the night would be seeing his interaction with his nephews and niece. It was easy to see that "Racecar Dave" was their favorite. RIP and I hope you're making movies with the Angels (;

“ What started out to be "just another real estate transaction" turned into a good friendship. After working unsuccessfully many years ago to help Dave and his wife find a purchase a home, I stayed in touch with him over the years. I had an immediate attraction to his "offbeat" sense of humor and fun-loving spirit. In 2010, Dave called and said he was ready to buy a home. We had a good time looking and sharing a couple of beers while we discussed the homes we had seen. He finally decided on Wylie Street and the rest is history! I went to his crazy parties whenever I could and loved to see him in "full-out party mode". I knew that Dave also suffered from his "demons" from time to time, but sadly didn't know how badly they haunted him. I recently read his book Aquilla and was struck to see a much different, darker side to his psyche. He was truly one of a kind, and I will miss him very much.

“ So sorry for your loss. Dave has been my Mac backup for years. He was one of the greatest guys I have ever met. When I first met Dave at Harland I knew he was special and I set SOLLOS up as my preferred provider right a way. When I went on vacation or I needed to be away from work for any reason he covered for me. When Dave found out my wife has MS, he started to do research on ways to help and he'd send me news articles for years. When I lost my job he tried so hard to find me a new one and got me a few interviews! All I had to do was call, text, or send him an quick email and he'd all ways be there for me. Not too long ago my wife and I were able to finally make it to one of his parties at his house. That will be a great memory for me. This news really hurts my heart. I will miss him so much. I know he will be missed by many. He was a great friend!

“ My condolences on the loss of your son David. I worked with Dave on the night shift at Seiz printing many years ago. I would stop by the stripping dept. at night when I came in and show Dave my hockey injuries from the night before. He was a kind and gentle soul with a sarcastic/kooky sense of humor. He was a special person who will be missed. I know he has found peace in God's hands.

“ I remember the deep discussions we had time to time through email. Knowing it was you, I was forced to dig deeper in research so I could better pad my argument. You got me to see different sides to a situation and think more critically. I have many other memories, some not mine own but told to me. Grandma used to tell me what a beautiful child you were and how you came over often when grandpa was sick. She (they) appreciated that so much. They loved seeing you. When we were "adults" you came up to WI to visit. You and I drove to Port Washington in my trans am. We spent a few hours catching up and talking. I teased you about saying you were ready to "court" a girl. I said no one says that anymore. You had such a kind, genuine heart. I'm going to miss you. Your name always rolled off "David, Debbie, and Heidi" it was usually said in a threesome if someone asked me who you were. It's gonna be hard to stop that. I hope you know how much you were loved. Even though some of your family didn't talk or see you much (like me) that doesn't mean you weren't loved or thought of. Your family. And I believe our family is tight in their love for us , no matter the distance. I pray your at peace and hanging out with grandpa and our great grandparents. Tell great grandma I miss her and think about her everyday. I love you David. This is all until I meet you on the other side.
