“ Dear Carolyn, Ken and family,

This is Kathryn Dyer, your "distant cousin" in France. I have just received the devastating news from Millie (Kathryn Surlles, on January 1st) about both Josiah and David. I am so, so sorry! I just could not wait for Helen to send me your email address, and I have also just viewed the lovely tribute video of David. What an incredibly handsome man he was! I am sorry that I did not know him personally.

Please know that I am praying for you --- that a loving Father in Heaven will bring you comfort in the knowledge that this life is not all there is! Jesus came to Earth to bring us this Good News --- that we would find comfort in knowing that we would see each other again. It is just so painful waiting for the reunion, but you shall find peace through the words of the sacred texts, and an empty tomb.

I am so glad that you are a family of faith. Love and peace to your souls, Kathy

“ Dearest Carolyn,

My prayers and thoughts are with you at this time. Unfortunately my job during the season requires my attention throughout the end of the year and I'm deeply sorry that I cannot attend the services for David. I will certainly follow up with you in the new year. God bless you with peace and comfort!

*With love,

“ I am privileged to know Dave. He was one of the funniest, most loving men I have ever known. We welcomed him into our family and he always brought joy to every event. His odd sense of humor was right on track with mine which is why we got along so well. There were many times when everyone around us thought we were going to fight and our verbal and sometime physical sparing ended with a huge and "I love you man." Dave was a man after my own heart. He loved his family, his friends, and our Lord Jesus Christ. We spent many hours talking about many things, including the Gospel. He was a believer in the Almighty and the sacrifice Jesus Christ made on the Cross. I can never express the extent of our love and friendship. It went beyond motorcycles, wake boarding, cliff jumping, aggressive sparing, and crude humor. It was rooted in loving our family, loving life, and helping those around us be their best. I will miss Dave the rest of my life, keep his memory alive, and cherish our friendship forever.

Dave - Thanks for the memories, friendship, and love. I love you Brother.
