“ Dave and I became friends thru Holston Home, maybe 20 years ago. I enjoyed working with him and had great admiration for him personally and professionally. I was at his retirement party and the thing that occurred to me was this. I have worked with many, many employers over the years, and I have never known a situation where "the money guy" was so universally loved. he was a great guy and will be greatly missed. I wish you all well.

“ Dave hired me as Director of Food Services over 16 years ago. I will always remember and cherish the relationship we shared. We last talked several weeks ago when he called me out of the blue to tell me of his plans and how happy he was at this point in his life. He will be sorely missed. My sincere condolences to all the family and friends.##imported-begin##Gary Copeland##imported-end##

“ Dave was not just a VP who reported to me at HUMH for 14 years, or a colleague I worked with for his 29 years there. He was a friend. Dave is fondly remembered by so many hear because of his wit, his caring, his nurturing of others. HE served well, he befriended many. He will not be forgotten. We are diminished!

Our hearts go out to his family.##imported-begin##Art Masker##imported-end##

“ My sincerest condolences to you. Dave was my boss at HH but he was a friend, too. During those years, there were many hilarious situations and Dave was part of the fun times which made work enjoyable. He cared about people and made people laugh. I will miss him and remember his wit, goodness and for being a good human being. Wish I could be there to celebrate his rich life. Praying God's comfort for you during this time. (BTW: If you recall, I was among those who met you and Dave at the Gen'l Morgan Inn earlier this year along with Ron Matthews & Tom Conley).##imported-begin##Martha Moore Beamer##imported-end##

“ Dana,

Your daddy was a fine man. He loved people and people loved him. He will always be in our hearts and his laugh in our ears. We have missed him since he retired, but we know he is dancing and singing again. Only now, he is doing it with the Lord! I am sorry you are having to go through this time of sorrow and loss, but you heard all the wonderful things your dad's friends had to say about him at his retirement and I know it made you proud. I am honored to have worked with him.

Please bring the kids and come see us anytime, you know the door is always open.

Love and God's healing hand on you, Cindy##imported-begin##Cindy Adorante##imported-end##
