“ I only met Debbie a couple of times when she came out to Stone Mountain Golf Course with Richard. Richard share with me through the incredible journey Debbie was on and I could tell Richard's love and caring for Debbie was unmatched. May God Bless and watch over Richard as he works through his loss now that Debbie is in the loving arms of her Lord.

“ *Jean-Marie Kambere.
I got to know Debbie and Richard.
She was a co-worker and a neighbor. Her warming smile, love of food she enjoyed to share and sweet heart will be greatly missed.
Rest in peace dear.*

“ Although eagle love is what introduced us, Debi's stories about the neighborhood peacock entertained for hours. A great story teller, she was so thankful for her life with Richard. So often she shared how lucky she was to have him to share her days. She appreciated his flowers, gifts, food.... It was so uplifting to chat with her because she was so grateful and she spread that glow to others. Rest well Debi, you have touched many.
