“ *Mae & Family,
With our deepest sympathy for your loss. I never met Dee but heard so many things about her & the love & compassion you always had for her. What a blessing to have family so caring. At times of great loss God gives us great peace, love & mercy. May his mercy be with you, Terrell & your son as you face the days ahead. Know that we are lifting you up in our thoughts & prayers. Sincerely, “The Hinton’s” (Kathy, Bo & Clint)*

“ My memory of my best friend, Love of my life is when she said yes to marry me July 4th 1984. We almost got to 34, but the Lord said you will not longer be in pain and discomfort anymore, I'll miss and loved you so very much, good times and bad times, but we stayed strong enough to remain together. I'll see you sometime in the future my, until then you'll be in God's hands. RIP my lovely wife and I really miss you. Love you..
