“ Deborah was such a wonderful and caring woman. I remember when Mama(Pauline Aikens Lewis) died, she was there at the home, bring food and doing whatever she could. We were blessed to have a friend and neighbor such as her. She will be missed greatly. May God comfort all the family as only HE can.##imported-begin##Brenda Lewis Newton##imported-end##

“ May God bless you and your family. Deborah's place has been made in heaven and she will keep her eyes on you and your family always. My mom told me that when you look up at the stars at night then you will see that she is there. That each star is a loved one waiting for us to join them.##imported-begin##Doug & Linda Bennett##imported-end##

“ I met Deborah when her 3 wonderful children were in elementary school at Harmony in Buford. She was active in the PTA and supportive of the chorus. Through her daughters activity in chorus, I became well acquainted with Deborah and we grew to be friends. I am saddened to hear about her death and want to express my sympathy to Kimberly, Lori, and Michael as well as husband Larry. I know you will miss her greatly.
